$100,000 Sale of Fifteen Hundred Imported China and American Porcelain Dinner Sets At One-Third Less Than To-Day's Wholesale Cost

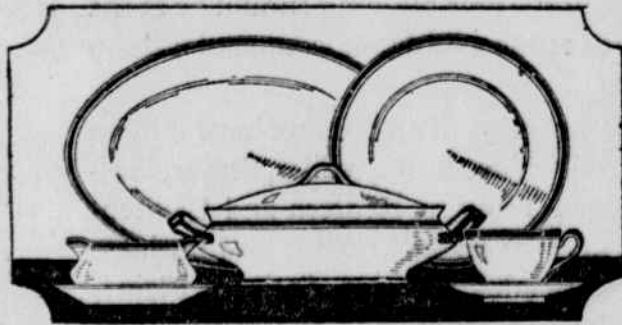

The Fruit of Our Cash Buying Policy

IT might interest you to know that this is one of the largest single purchases of china dinner ware that we have ever made. We paid cash, as is our policy, and secured such price concessions that we are able to offer dinner sets to you at one-third less than to-day's wholesale cost to other stores.

This purchase was made on December 1st and amounted to $130,000—of this amount $30,000 worth was fancy hand decorated Nippon China—which was placed on sale on December 7th and is now almost sold out.

Owing to the rush of holiday business it was not practical to place this dinner ware on sale until now.

Those who profited by our sale of Nippon China will need no other incentive than to know that they may obtain this splendid dinner ware at equivalent savings.

"Theodore Haviland"
